Historical Honolulu

OR A CENTURY OF

HAWAIIAN EVOLUTION.

This valuable record of the most important events in the History of Honolulu for the past hundred years was compiled and published at great expense in 1899.

Its historical and descriptive articles are by the very best recognized authorities on Island matters and are handed from absolutely impartial standpoints.

It is finely illustrated and contains portraits and biographical sketches of the principal business and professional men of the Islands.

This is a publication that no student of Hawaiian History can afford to be without. A limited number of copies still for sale by The Hawaiian Gazette Co., Ltd.

LOOKING FOR A MAN TO HELP WITH COUNTY ACT

Governor Carter Wants to Find a Hawaiian of Standing to Take the Place of Beckley.

"I will endeavor to announce the appointment of a County Act Commissioner to take the place left vacant by the resignation of Mr. Beckley in time for the new member to sit with the Commissioners at their meeting on Tuesday night," said Governor Carter yesterday.

The Governor had a consultation in the afternoon with Alex.
Robertson, Chairman of the Republican Territorial Executive Committee relative to this matter, but at the close of the talk stated that he had not decided upon the name of the man who would be given the place. The Governor, it is understood, is seeking some Hawaiian of standing sufficiently high to occupy the same position in the community as that held by Beckley.

It is greatly desired by the majority of the Commission that the vacancy shall be filled in time for the meeting on Tuesday night, as the majority intends to make an effort then to reach some kind of agreement upon the County Act, if agreement is humanly possible. It is true that a grave fear exists in the minds of the men of the majority that it will be hopeless to look for an agreement, the minority member having shown a decided purpose to agree to nothing if the agreement were not upon his act, nevertheless, if the new member chosen is a lawyer of standing it is hoped that the fact may have an important bearing upon the result. If four members of the Commission can come to agreement, there will be a great deal gained.

For all these reasons, the other Commissioners are waiting with much interest for the name of the Governor's appointee. The fate of the whole scheme of county government may hinge upon this particular appointment.

FORMED TO BUY AND RUN MAUI NEWSPAPER

The Maui News has passed, or is about to pass out of the hands of Geo.
B. Robertson. At least, that is the inference to be drawn from the articles of association filed with the Territorial Treasurer yesterday by the Maui Publishing Company. It is stated in the articles filed, distinctly, that the object of the corporation formed is to purchase the Maui News from George B. Robertson, and to publish the paper and carry on a general printing and publishing business. The principal place of business is to be at Wailuku, Maui, and the subscribed capital stock is $7500, which under the terms of the articles may be increased to $25,000.

The officers of the new company are:
J. N. S. Williams, president; R. A.
Wadsworth, vice-president; C. D. Lufkin, treasurer; D. H. Case, secretary; H. P. Baldwin, Carl Waldeyer, R. P.
Filler, directors.

The stockholders of the new company, and their holdings follow: H. P.
Baldwin, eleven shares; J. Barkhausen, eleven shares; D. H. Case, eleven shares; D. C. Lindsay, five shares; J.
A. Scott, ten; J. N. S. Williams, six; R. A. Wadsworth, six; C. D. Lufkin, six; R. W. Filler, six; Carl Waldeyer, six; J. Garcia, five; F. Hons, five; W.
Henning, five; J. J. Newcomb, five; A.
M. Hayselden, four; George Dunn, three; E. A. Wilson, two; A. J. Case, two; Dr. J. Weddick, two; W. T. Robinson, five; H. M. Cooke, three; C. E.
Copeland, five; W. Lougher, two; H.
Streubeck, three; D. A. Christiansen, five; Frank Sommerfeld, four; H. A.
Baldwin, six; J. N. K. Keola, one; R.
C. Searle, five.

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

determined by aroma and flavor I believe that Hawaiian coffee would be at the top of the list. We can grow coffee in Hawaii, there is no trouble on that score. The average yield per tree in Hawaii is about three times what it is in Brazil.

But unfortunately fashion, not merit, rules the price of coffee. A rather large proportion of our coffee, when properly graded, closely resembles the best grades of Java in shape and size of berry. But there is a marked difference in the color and odor of the two.
Color and odor are apparently what the buyers of fancy coffee are willing to pay for. The grading, cleaning and polish of the berry, and even the cup-ping qualities of the roasted article are subordinate. A certain shade of color and a certain odor have come to be associated in the minds of coffee experts with "Old Government Java" or "Old Mocha." If we could, by proper methods of fermentation and manipulation get into our Hawaiian coffee the peculiar dirty, yellowish brown color and Oriental smell our Hawaiian coffee could be sold for double the price which it now commands. I believe that this is possible and that it would pay to attempt it.

HORTICULTURE.

I would like an appropriation of $1000 per annum for two years to continue experiments which we have made in the shipment of mangoes, papayas and alligator pears and other tropical fruits in cold storage to the Eastern markets.
We have made our shipment of alligator pears to New York in cold storage.
Some of the fruit got through in good shape, some not. We were able to keep pears in cold storage seven weeks in Honolulu without deterioration in flavor or texture. The points to be worked out are the best temperatures and the methods of packing for storage and shipment. I believe that it is possible to work up a good market on the mainland for tropical fruits and that successful experiments will lead to the development of a profitable commercial industry, capable of almost indefinite extension.

GREEN HOUSE.

A green house for cultural and propagation experiments in horticulture would greatly aid horticultural investigations such as the study of fungus diseases of cultivated plants, the cross pollinations of flowers for the production of new varieties, and the propagation of economic plants for more general distribution throughout the islands. Such a structure would cost about $2000. The resources of the station will not permit the erection of a green house for some years to come.

Special Sale Of ALPACAS All During This Week.

Compare our prices with others then come and examine the goods. It will show you that this is the best place to buy.

Black and blue alpacas, width 42 inches. Reduced from 75 cts. to 25 cts. a yard.

White alpacas, width 42 inches. Reduced from 75 cts. to 45 cts. a yard.

Crepons reduced from $1.50 to 75 cts. a yard.

A. BLOM, PROGRESS BLOCK FORT STREET.

It is absolutely necessary for economy of time and effort that a plant house be provided as soon as possible.

IRRIGATION.

Irrigation and agriculture are almost synonymous terms in all the backward districts of Hawaii. Without water for irrigation during the dry summer months practically nothing can be grown. This station is very much in need of an improved water supply. If a reservoir were constructed at the 850 foot level on the station reservation, it would enable us to be independent of the Honolulu water works. During the last three years there has been a shortage of water even at times for household purposes during the summer months, so that no plot of field experiments requiring the use of water have been possible.

To provide an adequate water supply for irrigation of crops I would like an appropriation of $10,000 for the construction of a 3,000,000 gallon reservoir just below the forest on the upper part of our reservation.

To recapitulate, I respectfully request the support of the Board of Commissioners of Agriculture and Forestry in obtaining from the Territorial Legislature appropriations for this station as follows:

Tobacco work	$3000 per annum.
Silk culture	1500 "
Coffee	1500 "
Cold storage of fruits. 1000 "

A total of	$7000 per annum
And for a green house	$3,000
Reservoir	$10,000

Against County Government.

Part of letter of E. C. Bond, Kohala, dated January 12:

Am glad to see an occasional anti-county government squib in the Gazette. I wish it would go further and work up enough sentiment to bring out some influential men to work against it. Our Legislators-elect seem to think they are committed to it and must work for it.

They may succeed in putting the thing through, to repeat it later. I believe a better way could be devised to give the outer districts what they would consider their fair share of money and control.
